29 The court yesterday received from defendant a request for a six-week 30 extension of time in which to "have the time necessary to research all of his rights on 31 this matter." In the interests of conserving the resources of the court and the parties, 32 the court will rule on the motion without the necessity of a response from plaintiff.

33 Because defendant is incarcerated and must rely on the mail service, the court
34 grants him 28 days from the date of this order to complete and return the exemption
35 form sent to him, first, by the Office of the United States Attorney, and, second, by 36

1 this court. The form is straightforward and should not require more than a few 2 minutes to complete and return to the court, with a copy to the United States
3 Attorney. If defendant has not returned the properly completed form to the court 4 within the additional time given to him, the court will decide any remaining matters 5 without taking into account any further information defendant could supply by 6 completing the form.
